

Year 1 – Summer 2 – RE – Pupil Knowledge Organiser

What do I already know?			What am I learning now?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• People change and grow in different ways.</li><li>• People learn from their families.</li><li>• Some families' beliefs are the same and some are different.</li><li>• Important celebrations include Christmas and Easter (Christians), Eid (Muslims), Diwali (Hindus).</li></ul>			<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. What do we celebrate, and why?</li><li>2. How do we celebrate festivals?</li><li>3. How do we celebrate special days? (1)</li><li>4. How do we celebrate special days? (2)</li><li>5. What can we celebrate?</li></ol>
Believing	Thinking	Living	Key Knowledge: Celebrations & Festivals		Key Vocabulary
  Why is celebrating important to religious people?	  Should non-religious people celebrate festivals?	  How do celebrations help to keep families and communities together?	  Around the world, people celebrate many different special days.	  People often decorate their homes and invite others to join in celebrations for special days.	celebrate  special  festival  occasion  church  mosque  birthday  wedding  heritage	To make special or honour someone or something with gifts, parties, or activities.  Better or more important than the usual.  A yearly ceremony or celebration that involves special activities.  A special event; celebration.  The Christian place of worship.  The Muslim place of worship.  The day and month of the year when someone is born.  A ceremony where two people get married to each other.  Something that a person believes, thinks, or does that comes from their family or culture.
Religious Source of Wisdom
  Places of worship can help religious people celebrate.			  Some are festivals with religious stories or stories that explain why something happened.
  Holy books contain stories that festivals celebrate.  Some tell believers how to celebrate too.			  Some are family events.
			  Some are days to remember special people, or special events in history.
			  Celebrations bring family and friends together to enjoy a special day.			