What do I already know?		What am I learning now?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some places are special to religious people. Religious stories are used to teach people about God. Religious language can have different meanings. Symbols are an important way to teach things that are difficult to understand. People can show they are religious in different ways. Non-religious people can feel the same way as religious people about the world. 		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Can you feel God in a building? Why do lots of churches have stained-glass windows? Can a picture make you think about God? Who was Jesus? What did he look like? What is the point of religious art?
