

Year 1 – Spring 2 – Art & Design – Pupil Knowledge Organiser

What do I already know?		What am I learning now?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lines can be: straight, curved, wavy, or zigzag. • Shapes are basic forms such as: circles, squares, triangles, and rectangles. • Glue can be used to attach some materials. 		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How does Andy Goldsworthy make sculptures? 2. What shapes and textures can we make with natural materials? 3. How can we use natural materials to make our own sculptures? 4. What materials can we use from around the house to make sculptures? 5. How can we combine different materials to make sculptures? 6. What process did we use to create our sculptures?
Key Knowledge: Materials		Key Knowledge: Shape & Form
 Natural materials like leaves, stones, and twigs can be used to create various shapes.	 Sculptures can be made using household items like paper, plastic, and fabric.	 We can create textures like rough, smooth, or prickly using different materials. Leaves can be overlapped or twisted to create different shapes and patterns.	sculpture A work of art that is made by shaping/joining different materials. sculptor A person who makes sculptures. natural Something that is produced by nature, e.g. stones, wood and leaves. material Equipment and supplies for doing or making something. texture The feel and appearance of something. overlap To partly cover something by laying other things on top. balance To arrange things so that their weight is equal and do not fall over. household Something that can be found in a person's home. combine To put different things together. join To connect different materials to each other.
Significant People		Key Knowledge: Joining
Andy Goldsworthy  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A British sculptor and photographer. • Known for making sculptures using natural materials. • His art is temporary and change over time because of the weather. 	 Stones can be stacked or balanced to build tall structures.	 Glue, sticky tape or string could be used to join different materials.	