What do I already know?			What am I learning now?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Christianity, Islam and Judaism all have roots with Abraham. To believe means to trust in and follow the teachings of a higher power, even if you can't see or understand everything. People know right from wrong by listening to their community, learning from their religion or teachings, and thinking about how their actions affect others. 			<ol style="list-style-type: none"> What makes a person Jewish? Why is Abraham important to Jews? Why did Moses leave Egypt? Why did Moses return to Egypt? Why did pharaoh let the Hebrews go? What are the 10 Commandments?
