What do I already know?		What am I learning now?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We all belong to different groups; we can belong to different groups at once. There are lots of different religions in the world. Religious groups celebrate festivals. Hindu families have home shrines. Quakers can spend time together in silence. People of the same religion will pray together. 		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> What does 'belonging' mean? How do we 'belong' to Riversdale? Does it matter what a Christian wears to church? Does it matter what Muslims or Sikhs wear? If you visit a place of worship, do you belong to that religion? Are there other ways to show you belong to a religion?
