

Year 4 – Autumn 1 – Religious Education – Pupil Knowledge Organiser

WHAT DO I ALREADY KNOW?			WHAT AM I LEARNING NOW?
- Places of worship are important to religious people. - There are people who look after the places of worship and work there. - Muslims follow the religion of Islam. - Christians follow the teachings of Jesus. - Jesus' teaching and life can be understood in different ways.			- What is a role model and who is mine? - How might Jesus be a role model? - What is a Christian leader called and why? - How might Muhammad be a role model? - What is an Imam? - What can we learn from religious leaders?
SIGNIFICANT PEOPLE		KEY KNOWLEDGE: WHO ARE OUR ROLE MODELS?		KEY VOCABULARY
Jesus  - Central figure in Christianity. - He taught people about God using parables.		Jesus taught people how to live kind, loving, and forgiving lives.  The Parable of the Good Samaritan teaches people to help others, even if they are different.  A Catholic priest is called 'Father' to show he cares for the people like a parent.  The word 'pastor' means shepherd. Pastors care for their people like a shepherd cares for sheep. Muslims want to follow Muhammad's example because he was kind, honest, and fair.  An imam teaches, leads prayers, and helps the Muslim community. Religious leaders help others, show kindness, and give advice.  People can learn from religious leaders because their actions are good examples.		role model Someone we admire and try to be like. leader A person who guides and supports others. parable A story that teaches a lesson. teaching An idea or rule that helps people know how to live. pastor A Christian leader who cares for and teaches their "flock". Often used in Protestant church denominations. father Refers to a Catholic priest. imam A Muslim leader who guides prayer and supports the community. respect Treating others fairly and kindly, even if they are different. forgiveness Letting go of anger when someone has done something wrong. responsibility Being trusted to do the right thing and care for others.
RELIGIOUS SOURCES OF WISDOM
 The Bible is the holy book in Christianity.  The Qur'an is the holy book in Islam.
BELIEVING	THINKING	LIVING
 What do religious leaders believe about how people should treat others?	 Why do people choose different role models to follow?	 What can I learn from a religious leader that could help me in my own life?			