

Year 4 – Autumn 2 – Religious Education – Pupil Knowledge Organiser

WHAT DO I ALREADY KNOW?			WHAT AM I LEARNING NOW?
"Namaste" is a greeting, which means "I bow to the divine in you." - Many Hindus are vegetarian because they believe in respect for all life. - Diwali is a festival of that celebrates the defeat of the demon Ravana. - During Diwali, many Hindus pray to Lakshmi: deity of prosperity and happiness. - Many Hindus pray at their home shrine. - Murtis are treated with respect because they are symbols of gods and goddesses.			- Who is Brahman? - What other gods do Hindus believe in? - What/Who is the Trimurti? - What makes Ganesh a popular god? - What is a Hindu's dharma? - What do Hindus think happens when you die?
KEY KNOWLEDGE: WHAT DO HINDUS BELIEVE?		KEY KNOWLEDGE: WHAT DO HINDUS BELIEVE?		KEY VOCABULARY
 The Trimurti are the three main gods in Hinduism: Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva.	 The Trimurti represent the cycle of life/existence. This cycle can be seen in nature, such as in the seasons.	 A mandir is where Hindu worship, rituals, and gatherings may take place.	 The Bhagavad Gita teaches about dharma, karma and reincarnation.	 Karma influences a person's future life.	Hindu Brahman deity Trimurti dharma karma Samsara reincarnation moksha atman	A person who follows the religion of Hinduism. The supreme God in Hinduism, believed to be everywhere and everything. A god or goddess. The three main gods in Hinduism. The good and moral way to live, including duties and responsibilities. The belief that what you do will come back to you, in this life or in the next. The cycle of birth, death, and rebirth that all souls go through. The belief that when someone dies, their soul is born again in a new body. The goal of Hinduism, where the soul is freed from the cycle of reincarnation and becomes one with Brahman. The soul or spirit inside every living being, which is a part of Brahman and never dies.
RELIGIOUS SOURCES OF WISDOM			 Brahma: the creator god. Vishnu: the god of preservation. Shiva: the god of destruction.
 Dharma keeps society in harmony and brings good karma.			 The ultimate goal for Hindus is to achieve Moksha.			